

Useful information for families:

Do not leave children without adult supervision!

Every family member, especially children should keep personal information (name and family name, date of birth) and contact details (e.g. mobile/phone number) written on a piece of paper in order to more easily re-establish contact in case of separation during your travel.

If you have lost contact with your family members you can contact Red Cross staff or volunteers for help!

